In her oft-proclaimed anxiety to rescue the 3 million Muslims from what she describes as the tyranny of a handful of Hindus in the State, Pervidently is prepared to sacrifice the interests of 40 million Muslims in India. It is as if she would be playing a trait

India by committing such a folly would be playing strait into the hands of P. is concerned, except during the war, has been more or less

The CP so far as India is concerned, except during the war, has been more or less a secret party whose workings I do not know. He indicated that the P. party was not likely to enter into any working agreement with the CP for contesting the coming general elections. Hypothetical question. Heel that no human agency can reform the Congress. Those who are not the representatives of the people must be removed. Those who are not the representatives of the people must be removed.

The services of those who are not the representatives of the people must be utilized for special work. If persons however eminent are chosen who are not representatives of the people their inclusion in a cabinet except in exceptional cases would defeat democracy.

There is not mere opposition to the Congress, I will not join any party merely for the sake of defeating the Cong.

My difficulties are very great, and these are, especially organisational ones. I am satisfied that the people do want a change, but mass support means nothing unless it is organised. I would prefer to remain at the head of the organisation without contesting the elections, but if my party insists I will have to. If Thad accepts me I shall be very happy to stand for T. - He replied jovially. Will you scrap all controls?
